Dear Rector Nowak,

I was very sorry to learn about the loss of Prof. dr. Franciszek Ziejka. Though I have not had the honour to meet him in person, I cannot help but feel disquieted every time the academic community loses one of its valued members.

On behalf of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, allow me to extend my heartfelt condolences and to convey my deepest sympathies to Professor Ziejka's family.

Your gracious letter makes is quite apparent that Professor Franciszek Ziejka was a much revered and highly respected member of the Jagiellonian University and I am certain that the repercussions of his loss are being felt already by those who had the privilege of knowing him. It is during times like these, however, when we must find comfort in the rich scholarly legacy he has left behind. A famous proverb comes to mind in such a context: "Say not in grief 'he is no more' but live in thankfulness that he was".

Allow me to join you in honouring the memory of Prof. dr. Franciszek Ziejka.

Yours faithfully,

Rector,
Prof. dr. Tudor Toader
